I want my dog to be "Top Dog" because he was my uncles dog.

My uncle passed away last year. He had his dog fo over eight years.

My dogs name is Woody for the football coach Woody Hayes.

Woody's bread is shitzu. Woody has white curly hair. He usually has long hair, but he just got a hair cut so his hair is shorter than usuall. He has a handlebar beard that hang around his mouth.

When he goes a long time without a hair cut he can barely see because his eyebrows are so long. He has really long hair on his tail so it looks like a second head. When you get out a treat or his leash he sits like a human and patty cakes or begs. I hope you pick me and woody because he is very special.
